This matter comes before the Court on its own motion. The Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct, Canon 2, Rule 2.11, provides that “a judge shall disqualify herself in any proceeding in which the judge’s impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to the following circumstances: the judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or a party’s lawyer[.]”.

Following Plaintiffs’ Affidavit of Disqualification, filed with the Supreme Court of Ohio on May 8, 2017, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio issued her decision finding “no basis [had] been established to order the disqualification of Judge Breaux.” S.C.C. 17-AP-041. This Court has since conducted its own analysis under Rule 2.11, and while it cannot find it possesses any actual bias or prejudice concerning any of the parties in this matter or their counsel, out of an abundance of caution and in the best interest of all parties to the case, this Court hereby recuses itself from the matter forthwith.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

JUDGE ALISON BREAUX
