ADDITIONAL DEFENSES

1. Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to state claims for which relief can be granted.
2. Plaintiffs fail to satisfy all or part of the requirements set forth in Ohio R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1) through (4) inclusive.
3. Plaintiffs fail to satisfy all or part of the requirements set forth in Ohio R. Civ. P. 23(b)(1) through (3) inclusive.

4. Plaintiffs have pled no set of facts sufficient to sustain their burden of proving that they are a representative of any alleged class.

5. Plaintiffs' claims, and some or all of the purported classes, in whole or in part, are barred by operation of the applicable statutes of limitation or other limitation periods.

6. Plaintiffs' claims, and some or all of the purported classes, are barred by operation of the doctrines of laches, waiver, estoppel, equitable estoppel, and/or unclean hands.

7. Plaintiffs lack standing to bring and maintain their claims on behalf of the putative classes and standing to pursue, among other claims, their declaratory and injunctive relief.

8. Any alleged injury or damage claimed by Plaintiffs or some or all of the purported classes, which this Defendant denies, was the direct and proximate result of acts or omissions of persons or entities other than this Defendant or the other Defendants.

9. Any alleged injury or damage claimed by Plaintiffs, or some or all of the purported classes, which Defendant denies, was caused in whole or in part by the negligence, recklessness, lack of due care, or fault of persons or entities other than this Defendant or the other Defendants.

10. Any alleged injury or damage claimed by Plaintiffs, or some or all of the purported classes, which Defendant denies, was caused in whole or in part by the intervening and/or superseding acts, events, or omissions of persons or entities.

11. Plaintiffs and some or all of the purported classes have failed to mitigate any damages caused by any purported injury.

12. The claims of Plaintiffs and some or all of the purported classes are bound and precluded, in whole, or in part of the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, judicial estoppel, and judicial approval.

13. The claims of Plaintiffs and some or all of purported classes are barred in whole or in part by the doctrines of contributory negligence or fault pursuant to Ohio law.

14. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments and the Seventh Amendments' guarantee of a jury trial under the United States Constitution to the extent Plaintiffs seek to extrapolate liability, causation or damages on a class-wide basis, instead of proving liability, causation and damages for each individual class member.

15. Any award of punitive damages would constitute the imposition of a criminal penalty without the safeguards guaranteed by the Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution and similar provisions of the Ohio Constitution.

16. The imposition of punitive or exemplary damages would constitute an excessive fine under the Eighth Amendment, would deny Defendant of equal protection of the laws under the Fourteenth Amendment and similar provisions of the Ohio Constitution, and would violate the due process clauses of the Ohio Constitution.

17. Plaintiffs' claim for punitive or exemplary damages against Defendant cannot be maintained unless the trial is bifurcated. Any award of punitive damages without bifurcating the trial and trying all punitive damages issues only if and after liability on the merits has been found, would violate Defendant's due process rights guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and by the Ohio Constitution.

18. The imposition of punitive damages in this case against this Defendant would contravene the Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution in that such an award would constitute an undue and unreasonable burden on interstate commerce.

19. The imposition of punitive damages under applicable law would be unlawful and unauthorized, would be void for vagueness, both facially and as applied, as a result of, among other deficiencies, the absence of adequate notice of what conduct is subject to punishment, the absence of adequate notice of what punishment may be imposed, and the absence of a predetermined limit, such as a maximum multiple of compensatory damages or maximum amount, on the amount of punitive damages that a jury may impose, all in violation of the due process clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and the Ohio Constitution, and the common law and public policy of Ohio.

20. Plaintiffs' claim for punitive damages is subject to the limitations established by R.C. §§ 2307.80 and 2315.21.

21. Plaintiffs have failed to join all necessary and/or indispensable parties required for a just adjudication of this case.

22. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the economic loss doctrine.

23. Plaintiffs have intentionally waived the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, and other applicable privileges only as those privileges relate to them and their relationship with KNR. Plaintiffs cannot establish that they have the right to waive the attorney-client, work product, and other applicable privileges for any and all alleged members of the putative class.

24. Plaintiffs reviewed and voluntarily signed their contingency-fee agreements with KNR and the Settlement Memorandum, to the extent one was signed. Ms. Williams approved the Settlement Memorandum and the dispersal of all expenses.

25. This Defendant incorporates herein Defendants' responses to all of Plaintiffs' discovery requests.

26. Plaintiffs' fraud claims are not pled with particularity as required by Ohio R. Civ. P. 9(b).

27. Plaintiffs cannot satisfy their burden in establishing a piercing the corporate veil claim for relief to the extent one is later asserted.

28. Plaintiffs and the classes have failed to satisfy conditions precedent, including, without limitation, privity of contract, under the applicable agreements.

29. Plaintiffs' Complaint fails for insufficiency of process.

30. Plaintiffs' Complaint fails for insufficiency of service of process.

32. Plaintiffs' Complaint is frivolous and factually and legally baseless and violates Ohio R. Civ. P. 11 and Ohio law (e.g., R.C. § 2323.51).

33. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of accord and satisfaction and novation.

34. This Defendant incorporates all the Motions for Judgment on the Pleadings and related briefs and motions filed in this case as if fully rewritten herein.

35. This Defendant incorporates its Counterclaim as if fully rewritten herein.

36. This Defendant incorporates its prior Answers and the Answers of the other Defendants, including, but not limited to, their prior Answers.

37. This Defendant denies the prayer for relief and asserts the election of remedies defense.

38. This Defendant reserves the right to amend its Answer to assert any additional defenses, cross-claims, counterclaims and/or third-party complaints to the extent that discovery in this matter reveals any basis for the assertion of such defenses.

WHEREFORE, having fully responded to Plaintiffs' Complaint herein, this Defendant requests that the Complaint be dismissed with prejudice, that it recover its costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees incurred herein, and for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable.
