EXTO

EXHIBIT H

NORRIS, MONIQUE 01/28/2019

Page 1

	2.1.80
1	COMMON PLEAS COURT OF THE STATE OF OHIO
2	IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF SUMMIT
3
4	MEMBER WILLIAMS, et al.,
5	Plaintiffs,
6	vs. JUDGE JAMES A. BROGAN
7	CASE NO. CV-2016-09-3928
8
9	KISLING, NESTICO & REDICK
10	LLC, et al.,
11	Defendants.
12
13	VIDEOTAPED DEPOSITION OF MONIQUE NORRIS
14	MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 2019
15	9:52 A.M.
16	DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel
17	3150 West Market Street
18	Fairlawn, Ohio
19
20
21	REPORTED BY:
22	Sarah R. Drown
23
24
25

EXTO

MONIQUE NORRIS January 28, 2019

CV-2016-09-3928

	Page 13	Page 15
1	Q I'm sorry. Who said that?	1 contingency fee agreement and you had agreed to
2	A The investigator.	2 it, correct, verbally?
3	O You mean before he would talk to you	3 A Yes.
4	A Yes.	4 Q So you already they already knew once you
5	Q he wanted you to sign it?	5 signed they were going to represent you and you
6	A Yes. He told us we had to sign all of our	6 already knew you wanted them to represent you
7	papers before we would discuss any of the	7 at the time the investigator came out, correct?
8	information.	8 A Well, I told him what my exact words were, I
9	Q Any of what information?	9 wanted to discuss if I wanted them to represent
10	A About our case.	10 us, but it ended up that's what happened.
11	Q Okay.	11 Q Okay. You're saying that you told Rob Horton
12	A About anything that happened with the accident.	12 that when the investigator came out to see
13	Q You knew he was not a lawyer, correct, the one	13 you
14	who came out to your house?	14 A Yes.
15	A Yes, but when I talked to the KNR	15 Q that you wanted to talk to the investigator
16	representative, Mr. Horton, he's the one who	16 about whether KNR should represent you?
17	told me that they would be sending someone to	17 A Yes, because they were the ones that were
18	our house	supposed to discuss what was going on with our
19	Q Okay.	case, to find out if we had needed a lawyer, if
20	A from their law firm. So I just thought	20 I wanted them to actually represent us. I was
21	everybody was all together.	21 under the impression that they were from KNR.
22	Q Okay. I understand what you're saying on that,	22 Q Okay. That's a separate issue.
23	but	23 Regardless of where they were from, my
24	A But as far as why I didn't feel comfortable	24 question to you is: You thought that the
25	there is with everything with the case that's	25 investigator who was going to come out was the
	Page 14	Page 16
	rage 11	rage 10
1	going on currently. I just didn't want that,	1 person who was going to talk to you about
1 2		person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an
	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney
2 3 4	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes.
2 3 4 5	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes.	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR?
2 3 4 5 6	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes.
2 3 4 5 6 7	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR?	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes.	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable?	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No.	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out,	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct?	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes.	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else,
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes. Q Now, he didn't tell you it was a KNR employee	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else,
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes. Q Now, he didn't tell you it was a KNR employee or not a KNR employee, fair?	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else, but let me just ask you this. I mean, tell me
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes. Q Now, he didn't tell you it was a KNR employee	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else, but let me just ask you this. I mean, tell me everything you remember about that first
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes. Q Now, he didn't tell you it was a KNR employee or not a KNR employee, fair? A No. He say it would be someone they would	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else, but let me just ask you this. I mean, tell me everything you remember about that first conversation with Rob Horton.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes. Q Now, he didn't tell you it was a KNR employee or not a KNR employee, fair? A No. He say it would be someone they would send someone from their office out that evening	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else, but let me just ask you this. I mean, tell me everything you remember about that first conversation with Rob Horton. A As far as what?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes. Q Now, he didn't tell you it was a KNR employee or not a KNR employee, fair? A No. He say it would be someone they would send someone from their office out that evening to come and talk to us about if we wanted them	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else, but let me just ask you this. I mean, tell me everything you remember about that first conversation with Rob Horton. A As far as what? Q How it came about, who you talked to first,
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes. Q Now, he didn't tell you it was a KNR employee or not a KNR employee, fair? A No. He say it would be someone they would send someone from their office out that evening to come and talk to us about if we wanted them to represent us.	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else, but let me just ask you this. I mean, tell me everything you remember about that first conversation with Rob Horton. A As far as what? Q How it came about, who you talked to first, what was said, when it was.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes. Q Now, he didn't tell you it was a KNR employee or not a KNR employee, fair? A No. He say it would be someone they would send someone from their office out that evening to come and talk to us about if we wanted them to represent us. Q Okay. Now, he told you specifically that he	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else, but let me just ask you this. I mean, tell me everything you remember about that first conversation with Rob Horton. A As far as what? Q How it came about, who you talked to first, what was said, when it was. A How it came about?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes. Q Now, he didn't tell you it was a KNR employee or not a KNR employee, fair? A No. He say it would be someone they would send someone from their office out that evening to come and talk to us about if we wanted them to represent us. Q Okay. Now, he told you specifically that he was sending an investigator, correct?	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else, but let me just ask you this. I mean, tell me everything you remember about that first conversation with Rob Horton. A As far as what? Q How it came about, who you talked to first, what was said, when it was. A How it came about? Q Sure.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	going on currently. I just didn't want that, that air. I just felt uncomfortable. Q When you first talked to the KNR representative who you believe was Rob Horton A Yes. Q And that would have been when you first called KNR? A Yes. Q Anything about the conversation with Mr. Horton that made you feel uncomfortable? A No. Q And he told you an investigator was coming out, correct? A Yes. Q Now, he didn't tell you it was a KNR employee or not a KNR employee, fair? A No. He say it would be someone they would send someone from their office out that evening to come and talk to us about if we wanted them to represent us. Q Okay. Now, he told you specifically that he was sending an investigator, correct?	person who was going to talk to you about whether you should be represented by an attorney A Yes. Q and by KNR? A Yes. Q And you didn't make that decision already when you talked to Rob Horton? A No. I hadn't fully made the decision. I had told him that. Q Okay. Why did you agree to have somebody come out, then? A To discuss our accident. Q Okay. So I was going to start somewhere else, but let me just ask you this. I mean, tell me everything you remember about that first conversation with Rob Horton. A As far as what? Q How it came about, who you talked to first, what was said, when it was. A How it came about? Q Sure. A My auntie recommended him to us.