Yes, sir. Α. So why didn't you want to send him the client Q. payoff list? First of all, because when you send those lists, Α. you're not suppose to send client names. That's all I wanted to make sure, that confidential information didn't go out. They usually take that out, the spreadsheet. Why couldn't you just e-mail Julie and say take Q. the client names out and then go ahead and send it? Α. I don't know, Peter. Q. Okay. (Thereupon, Plaintiff's Exhibit 84 was marked for purposes of identification.) Do you remember this? Ο. Α. Yes. What do you remember about it? Q. That they're trying to ask Ciro for a favor and Α. get him to waive it so that they didn't have to pay for the loans. They're asking Ciro for this favor because they messed up. Ken and Gary? Q.

1	A.	Yes, sir.
2	Q.	Ken Zurrusen and Gary Petti?
3	A.	Gary Petti has closed two cases without paying
4		and Ken one case, so we're responsible.
5	Q.	Well, it says Ciro was going to waive at the top
6		so not only they weren't asking him for the
7		favor, he had already given them the favor,
8		correct?
9	A.	And do you understand that that's at the expense

11		on not because of the lawyer messing up.
12	Q.	That's at the expense of another client?
13	A.	Yeah. That's the way I see it.
14	Q.	So Brandy is telling you that Gary and Ken closed
15		cases and distributed settlement funds to the
16		client without paying what was owed to Liberty

1	Q.	When does the fee get paid?
2	A.	When the case is opened up, generally.
3	Q.	Okay. And basically when the case is opened up,
4		you'll have an e-mail from an investigator that
5		has all of these forms identified in subpart two

5	Α.	So without trying to give you too much of a long
6		explanation, these investigators, they're paid
7		their investigation fee from a bare minimum of
8		work which is there retained and available for
9		their services. And what they have to do,
10		especially MRS and AMC, is they have to obtain

1		were on the hook for the whole case
2	Α.	Uh-huh.
3	Q.	so why would they get paid separately fo	r
4		picking up records or knocking on a door to	)
5		verify an address?
6	Α.	So, first of all, I think that what they're	ž
7		focusing on first is why this all happen	ied was
8		you look at the bottom, there were only fiv	ve for
9		Aaron and two for Mike. That means they go	t paid
10		more than once Aaron got paid more than	once
11		on five cases and Mike got paid more than c	nce on
12		two which is in line with what I told you,	a huge
13		no, no. They're only to be paid once.
14		I think what Robert is trying to say is	; if
15		some of these investigators may have negoti	ated a
16		different deal, that if they did additional	.work,
17		that they would get paid. The best part is	; I
18		have never seen it, any additional payments	being
19		made other than I think once or twice a guy	/ had
20		to go back out because of the lawyer's faul	.t,
21		nothing to do with the case, and it was far	;, and
22		it wasn't Aaron or Mike. Like it was a fou	ır-hour
23		roundtrip.
24	Q.	So you've never seen that an investigator w	rould
25		get paid a second payment on a case?

	MICHAEL	., KATHRYN 08/07/2019 14:52:04 PM DEPE	Page 325 of 389
			620
1	Α.	Never.
2	Q.	Okay. So why couldn't Aaron and	Mike be paid
3		separately and the other investig	ators could?
4	A.	That's not what was negotiated.
5	Q.	Negotiated
6	A.	They're negotiated, they only get	a flat fee. If
7		you look there's some they sta	rted at $25,
8		they negotiated and topped out at	50. Started at
9		25 and went 30, 35, 40, 45, done	at 50.
10	Q.	Where are these negotiations memo	rialized?
11	A.	They're not, it's just verbal.
12	Q.	Okay. You said in a couple of yo	ur interrogatory
13		responses that one of the things	the
14		investigators did for Member Will	iams and for
15		Matthew Johnson was that they rev	iewed a police
16		report?
17	A.	They obtained.

19	A.	Yes, sir.
20	Q.	What good is it to have an invest	igator review a
21		police report?
22	A.	Again, remember I told you about	checks and

24		checking with what intake does.	This is why you
25		don't blow a statute of limitatio	ns. It has

1	Α.	It's ri	diculous, for me.
2	Q.	Okay.	Why?
3	Α.	I'm ent	itled to that. I	t's my opinion.
4	Q.	To laug	h?
5	Α.	No, tha	t I think it's ri	diculous because	∋ − −
6	Q.	For me	to ask that quest	ion?
7	Α.	Peter,	I just finished t	elling you that	this is
8		what I	believe, that the	ey are not employ	yees, we
9		went th	rough this. You	and I have just	danced
10		for the	last 15 minutes	about that.
11	Q.	Okay.	Just going throug	h this document.	. I think
12		we're a	bout done.
13			MR. BEST:	How long have	we been

1	Q.	between you and Mr. Horton. The subject line
2		says "termination". I assume a client name is
3		redacted. You're e-mailing Horton, why didn't
4		you call him yesterday after Minas text you and
5		asked you to call because the guy was hesitant.
6		Horton responds, I didn't think anything of it.
7		My feeling on it is if they are quote, hesitant,
8		but have already signed up, they can't be that
9		hesitant about it. And I do not want to annoy
10		them before they get comfortable. I thought that
11		the conversation I had with him initially was a
12		good conversation, informative, cautionary, et
13		cetera, and we ended it well. And Floros was
14		being overly cautious because the guy was a
15		seemingly educated individual who maybe didn't
16		buy into his normal bullshit.
17		Your response was, no, wrong, he helps talk
18		to them, but they need constant reassurance.
19		Wrong decision.
20		Does that sound right to you?
21		MR. MANNION: What do you mean by
22		does it sound right
23	A.	What part of it?
24		MR. MANNION: that you read it
25		correctly you mean?

1	Q.	That th	nat would be adv	ice that you w	would have
2		given t	to Horton? What	did you mean	by, "they
3		need co	onstant reassura	nce"?
4	A.	Well, t	these clients, d	o you understa	and when they
5		get int	to an accident,	it turns thei:	r life upside
6		down, a	and the doctor h	elps them unde	erstand we are
7		there t	to help them. S	o that's what	I mean by,
8		no, wro	ong. We're o	bviously Atto:	rney Horton
9		good gu	ay Attorney H	orton talked t	to them and he
10		didn't	obviously reass	ure them enoug	gh. That's
11		the way	y I read that.
12	Q.	Okay.	What's Horton t	alking about ·	what's your
13		underst	anding of what	Horton talks a	about when he
14		says th	ne guy was a see	mingly educate	ed individual
15		who may	ybe didn't buy i	nto his normal	l bullshit?
16	Α.	I have	no idea, Peter.
17	Q.	You rev	viewed that docu	ment when we p	produced it,
18		didn't	you?
19	Α.	I'm sur	ce I did.
20	Q.	You rem	nember it you	remember hav:	ing reviewed
21		it?
22	Α.	I revie	ewed all the doc	uments.
23	Q.	Okay.	And you don't d	eny that this	exchange
24		happene	ed, do you?
25	Α.	No.

1	Q.	Okay.	There's another e	e-mail, KNR 0318	regarding
2		narrat	ive fees, where ye	ou write, everyo	ne all
3		caps	- please make sure	e to send narrat	ive fees
4		direct	ly to the doctor a	and not the clin	ic under

6		again.
7		And	d then Redick res	ponds, why don't	I keep
8		all of	the narrative che	ecks like I do F	loros and
9		we can	just bundle them	and send them t	o ensure
10		they as	re sent to the rid	ght place.
11		Do	you have any memo	ory of why you w	ould send
12		this?
13	Α.	It sour	nds like checks m	ust have got los	t.
14	Q.	And why	y to the doctor d	irectly and not	the
15		clinic	?
16	Α.	We aske	ed you asked me	e that question
17	Q.	Yeah.
18	A.	beca	ause that's what	they wanted.
19	Q.	Because	e you do you re	emember getting	a report
20		that ch	necks were gettind	g lost?
21	Α.	What do	o you mean "a repo	ort"? You mean	that
22		someone	e told me?
23	Q.	Yes.
24	A.	Must ha	ave. I don't know	W.
25	Q.	Okay.	But you produced	this e-mail, it	's KNR

12			MR. POPSC	N: Thank Go	od we're not.
13	A.	Really,	are we done?
14			MR. MANNI	CON: I know
15			MR. BEST:	Yeah, wrag	p this up.
16			MR. MANNI	ON: You sat	id a half
17			hour, it's well c	ver a half h	lour.
18	Q.	So ther	e's KNR 0754 to 5	6 on June 14	4th, 2012,
19		Brandy	wants to request	narrative ch	necks and
20		sends a	list of 68 narra	tives. Flor	ros says
21		that's	a crap load of na	rratives. A	Anyway they
22		can be	done by Thursday	at 11:00 a.r	n. So this is
23		roughly	, a week time peri	od for him t.	to get 70 of
24		these d	lone
