Summit County Clerk of Courts Contributes County Fair Passes to Local Youth Enrichment Organizations

AKRON, OHIO – Summit County Clerk of Courts Sandra Kurt contributed passes to the Summit County Fair to two local youth organizations, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Northeast Ohio and Big Brothers Big Sisters of Summit, Medina, & Stark Counties.

Clerk Kurt has been a proud sponsor of the Summit County Fair since 2018. The 100 complimentary passes – a $1000 value – that come with sponsorship allows Clerk Kurt to offer a fun experience to learn about rural life and food production, with the added bonus of festival rides and fair foods.

“As someone who comes from a farming family, it is very rewarding for me to give our local youth a taste of life on the farm,” said Clerk Kurt.

“Our families snatched up the fair tickets and more than a few came back to the Club with stories about the animals they saw and the fun they had attending,” shared Colette Taylor, Regional Director of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Northeast Ohio.
