

FOR THE RECORD

VOLUME 1 2026

TAVIA GALONSKI
SUMMIT COUNTY CLERK OF COURTS

From the Desk of Clerk Tavia Galonski

Dear Reader,

Here at the Clerk's office, we are gearing up for a busy spring and summer season! In January, I went on the Ray Horner Morning Show to talk about applying for your passport at the title offices. In the Office, the Legal & Title divisions donated to Summit Bluecoats for the 2026 annual jeans day pass. The Summit Bluecoats are located in Clinton, OH but support police, fire, and sheriff's departments across the county. I also hosted and moderated a discussion with Akron Municipal Clerk Sandra Kurt to discuss the crucial differences between Common Pleas Clerks of Courts and Municipal Clerks.

We've welcomed new staff to the Clerk's office across the legal and title divisions! Our office recognized Martin Luther King Jr. Day, Presidents' Day, the Lunar New Year, Mardi Gras, Ramadan, and Black History Month.

As spring continues, my team and I will be at more events across the county, check out our social media for the most recent updates. I hope to see you while out and about!

Sincerely,

Clerk of Courts Socials

Clerk in the Community

Whether working together with community groups and organizations or supporting local charities, the Summit County Clerk of Courts Office takes pride in helping others.

The Importance of Having a Passport

Clerk Galonski gave a presentation on the importance of having a passport to a group of school age kids and their families. Clerk Galonski talked about the passport services that the Clerk's office offers at the title divisions. The event was hosted by the Kent Area Chapter of the Links, Incorporated.

Black History in Our Courts

Clerk Galonski was an honored panelist at the Black History in Our Courts discussion led by Judge Kani Hightower in Judge Stormer's probate courtroom. Clerk Galonski shared her experiences as an attorney, a former magistrate, and former state representative. She shared her goals for the future at the Clerk's office.

WAKR Senior Lunch Series: Mardi Gras

Our office handed out literature and talked to seniors about their experiences at our Title and Legal offices. Our office also raffled off a door prize full of Clerk of Courts swag alongside some comfort items.

Twinsburg Community Expo

Clerk Galonski sponsored a booth at the Twinsburg Community Expo. Our office took the opportunity to spread information about services offered at our Northfield Title office.
